Indiana Association of Student Councils Middle Level Division

Executive Committee District Director

Description

The IASC Middle Level Division Executive Committee shall consist of 6 middle level student council advisers representing the 6 IASC Geographical Districts. These 6 advisers shall have the title of IASC ML Division District Director. The “West” Districts’ Directors shall be appointed by the IASC in odd number years. The “East” Districts’ Directors shall be appointed by the IASC in even number years. The term of service is 2 years; these being July 1 – June 30, the IASC fiscal year.

District Directors are essential for the delivery of IASC program. Below is a listing of expectations.

Expectations

1. To attend selected High School Division Executive Committee Meetings. In a typical year there are 8 meetings. These meetings occur in August, September, October (2); in November in conjunction with State Convention; in January; in March in conjunction with Representative Assembly; and in April/May.
2. To attend the HS Division/ML Division State Convention (typically in November).
3. To attend HS Division/ML Division Representative Assembly (typically in March/April).
4. To attend the Annual Advisers Conference
5. To work collaboratively as a team with the IASC Executive Director, HS Division Associate Director, ML Division Associate Director and the other HS/ML Division District Directors to develop and deliver the HS/ML Division leadership curriculum and the Advisers’ Conference program.
6. To work collaboratively with the HS Division & ML Division Executive Committees in the development and delivery of the HS/ML Division Regional/District Workshops, HS/ML Division State Convention and HS/ML Division Representative Assembly program.
7. To work collaboratively as a team with the HS Division District Directors and Student District Representatives to deliver IASC communication and programs to member schools.
8. To communicate with advisers from member schools regarding IASC program.
9. To communicate with non-member schools in an effort to secure their membership.
10. To mentor "rookie" advisers, checking in with them frequently, and assisting them when possible.

Benefits

1. Complimentary registration to the IASC Adviser’s Conference, District/Regional Workshop, State Convention & Representative Assembly.
2. Collaboration and networking with State Student Council leaders in Indiana.
3. Key role in the development of IASC leadership development programming.
4. Networking/New friendships.
